The BBC has reserved one slot for a scholarship recipient in the first camp session (June 12-17, 2022) and one slot in the second camp session (June 19-24, 2022). Please circle one of the following three choices to indicate your ability to attend either session or only one session:

- (a) Can only attend first session (June 12-17, 2022)
- (b) Can only attend second session (June 19-24, 2022)
- (c) Able to attend either session

If you are able to attend either session, please indicate your preference _____

PLEASE ANSWER THE FOLLOWING TWO QUESTIONS ON A SEPARATE SHEET(S). YOU CAN BE AS DETAILED AS YOU WISH.

Which features of the Hog Island program most appeal to you? How would this program benefit you?

What have you done that you are most proud of, and why? (This need not be bird-related.)

PERSONAL STATEMENT:

Type and attach a personal statement, no longer than two pages, telling us about the importance of birds in your life, your experiences as a birder (e.g. Christmas Bird Counts, conservation projects, travel, independent birding), and birding-related activities you most enjoy (e.g. drawing, photography, teaching).

LETTERS OF RECOMMENDATION:

Your application must be supported by two letters of recommendation from adults who know your commitment to birding (e.g. teacher, mentor, nature center director). The letters may be included with your application or sent directly to the e-mail address below.

Completed applications and letters of reference must be sent by e-mail to scholarship@brooklinebirdclub.org

All components of the application must be received by March 21, 2022.

The announcement of the scholarship awards will be made by April 4, 2022.

By signing this application, I represent that I am a resident of a New England state and will be between 14 and 17 years old on June 1, 2022. The BBC scholarship will cover the camp tuition/fees of $1690, to be paid directly by the BBC to National Audubon. I understand that, if I am awarded a scholarship, I will share my experiences with the BBC membership.
